—Connie Beck

Spirits of hope, unity, and competition striving together for six years.

Trying to please all the people who picked you to give them what they want.

Patience combined with deep concentration.

Opportunities for expressing views.

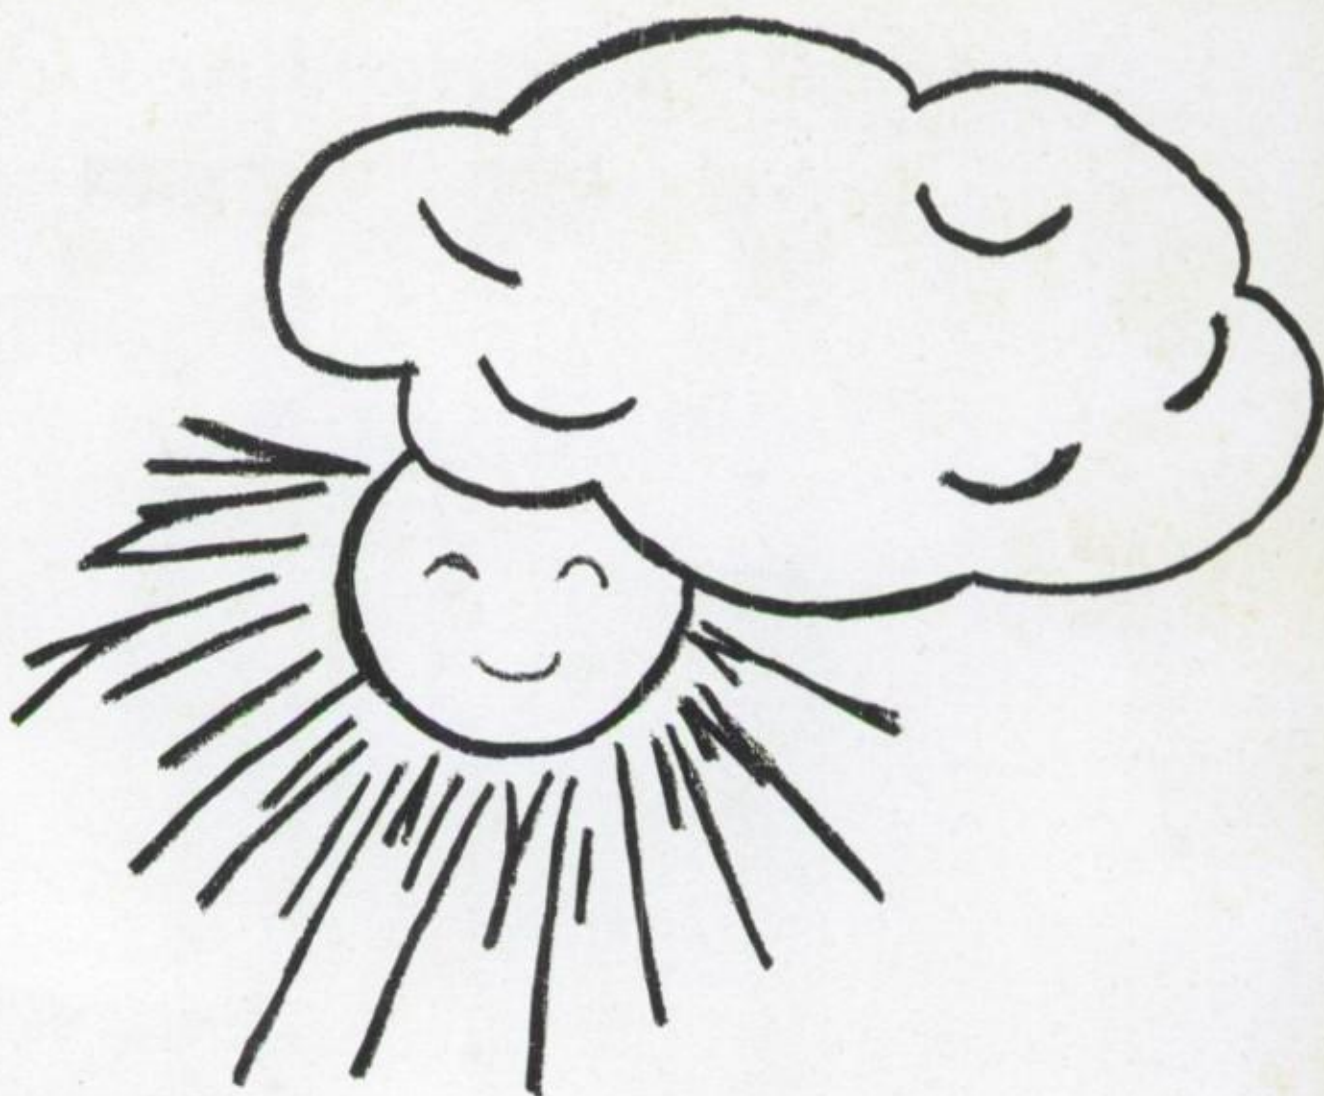

Halftime entertainment sweeping the field in waves.

Flashing of reflected sunlight on shiny batons.

Learning lines to make simple stories become alive and real.

Spurring on the team; clapping hands and cheering voices.

Strange and pleasant odors streaming through the halls.

Endless numbers divided, added, multiplied and subtracted.

Memorizing and reading; writing and reporting; learning and forgetting.

Rushing to meet the end; shortened tempers; tensions rising; learning to prepare for tomorrow.

All the good times and all the bad were once all real, but now will exist only in each individual mind. Each one remembering their own special events of school. All these events we shared together now combine to bring us only a bundle of memories, some to regret, but most to want someday again.

In Parting

Class Poem

*We sorrow to leave behind a part of us.
Special friends, teachers,
strangers . . . faces forever
lost
in the flames of destiny.
Together,
 yet alone,
we approach the future—
in search of half hidden happiness, security, and love.*

*Like small children we will sometimes be blinded
by temptation and desire.
It is then that we will test
our accomplishments . . .
And in looking back
we'll view our hard trodden path—
contentment or despair?
happiness or pain?
success or failure?*

Seventh Grade—

This year marks the beginning of a new life style combined with much confusion. Our advisors were Miss Brooke, and Mr. Seitz. Elected as the first officers of our high school years were Bill Koehler, President, Gary Mowrer, Vice-Pres., Dee Ann Bartch, Sec., and Tim Erney, Treas.

September, 1968—We elected as officers Bill Koehler, Pres., Tom Miesenbach, V.P., Dee Ann Bartch, Sec., and Eric Shaeffer, Treas. Our Advisors were Miss Shenk, and Mr. Seitz.

January 18, 1969—We all brought a bottle of Coke to the 7th and 8th grade party. Later that month we went to Meadow Valley for an exciting night of skiing.

March, 1969—Two important events happened. Rit Peters, Gary Mowrer, Debbie Kreider, and Cass Rote were chosen as D.A.R. recipients. The following people were inducted into the Honor Society, Martin Aurand, Doug Halter, Ron Mathiot, Tim Erney, Donna Bowersox, Marcia Bessick, Cass Rote, Nancy Peters, Lydia Poindexter, Lisa Creasy, Bonnie Andrews, Chris Daggett, and John Mc Farland

February 5, 1971—The class treasury needed a boost so we launched a stationery sale. It was a large success. Also that month, Gary Mowrer achieved the title of sectional runner-up in wrestling. This was our first step of individual importance in sports.

1973 Dedication 1973

There are few teachers who can teach, joke, and at the same time command respect. We have dedicated the SUSQUEHANNOCK to such a teacher. Though teaching such difficult subjects as Chemistry, Physics, and Science III, he has filled these courses with his wit that makes them seem less difficult. Because of our great admiration, we wish to give to Mr. Robert Koppehele the highest award that the Class of 1973 can bestow.

'72' Mifflin Memorial Service

Each September the students from the senior class at CHS pay tribute to Lloyd Mifflin, a respected artist, poet, and sculptor from the Columbia area. The Mifflin Memorial Service is held at his grave in the Mount Bethel Cemetery. The senior with the highest average recites "A Picture of My Mother" and places a rose on the grave of the author's mother. This year's speaker was Martha Staman.

The Senior Class Play . . .

Glenda Kise and Tony Segro portrayed our two villains. Jack Bollinger was our lovable bartender and Pam Blumenshine was the owner of Calamity Jane's saloon. Rick Ross was one of our western cowboys.

Glenda Kise, Tony Segro, Rick Ross, Pam Blumenshine, Jack Bollinger

Here sits the great sheriff, Scott Parmer and our respectable judge, Gerry Washe. Our barmaids and the "Man in the corner" sit in the background.

"Deadwood Dick"

Here stand our great heroes, Pat Sumpman and Rick Manley. Bambi Millar is one of the heroines.

Bill Wolpert, our "wunerful" Chinese friend, along with Pat Sumpman, Nick Meley, Marsha Miller, and Tom Kirchner are shown in this scene.

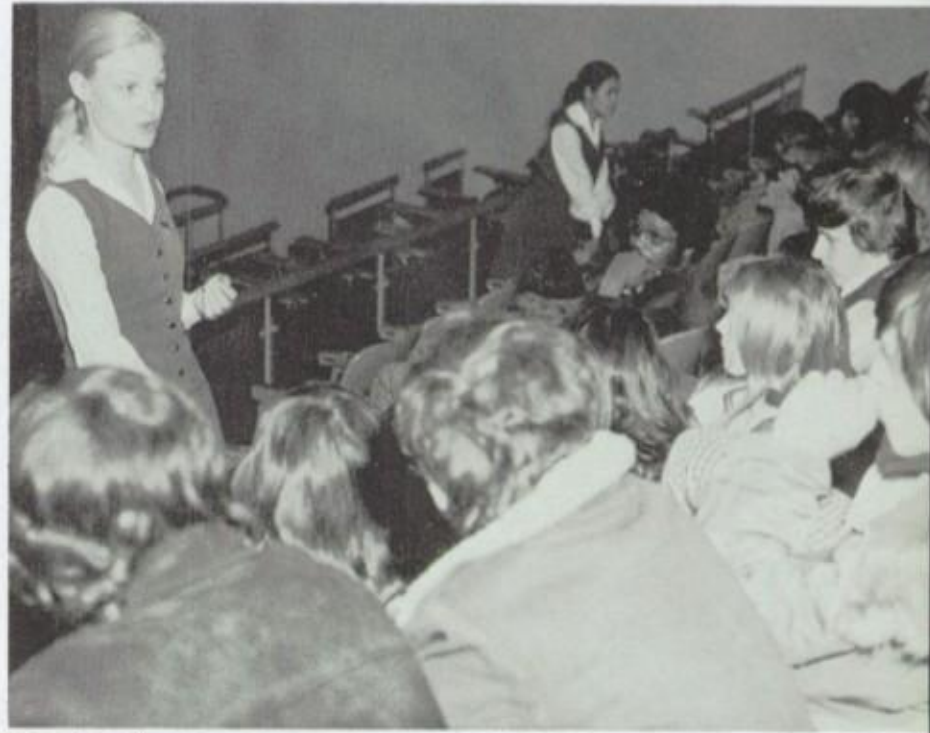

Our Cast Included: Bambi Millar, Rose Blossom; Rick Manley, Ned Harris; Pat Sumpman, Wild Bill Hickok; Melanie Wolpert, Lilly Blossom; Tony Segro, Blackman Redburn; Jerry Washe, Judge Nix; Pam Blumenshine, Calamity Jane; Glenda Kise, La Paloma; Bill Wolpert, Pong Ping; Jack Bollinger, Chet Pussy; Scott Parmer, Sheriff Loveless; Mary Anne Detz, Molly; Kim Kriner, Teetotal Tessie; Marsha Miller, Piano Annie; and a cast of many others, who without their help, this play would not have been presented. Last but not least, we would like to express our greatest appreciation to Mrs. Williams, our director. We would also like to thank everyone else who helped make our play a success.

Now $100 a month makes Army ROTC look even better.

All Advanced Course Cadets and every ROTC Scholarship Student now receives $100 a month subsistence allowance. One hundred dollars. Every month for 10 months of the school year.

But Army ROTC means a lot more than more money. It means management and leadership experience that you just can't get anywhere else. The kind of thing that can land you a better job, and move you along faster once you get it. It means a commission as an officer and everything that goes with it. The prestige, the pay, the chance to travel, the experience.

Now ROTC looks even better. For the money you'll earn while you're in it. For the person you'll be when you're out. See your guidance counselor or send the coupon for information.

Army ROTC.
The more you look at it,
the better it looks.
